

Surface Bolt - extended 355mm

AQ82EX Range

Surface mounted door bolt with an extended handle. The longer handled extension allows easier use for those low or higher fittings where a conventional sized bolt would make reaching awkward. Smooth operation, integral ball and spring mechanism for positive location of the bolt when closed. Comes with a selection of three strikes for use with inward and outward opening doors ensuring versatility in various applications.

