

Salano Handle

FTD4225

An outstanding design. A straight multi section bar slightly angled along the top lines and recessed into the end plinths, accentuating the effect of the split finish. This attention to details reflects the quality and care invested in this design. Available in different finishes and sizes.

