

Spitfire Hex Lever on Round Rose

AW224

The Alexander and Wilks Spitfire door handle features a modern hexagon feel, against a T-bar cylindrical stem silhouette, finished with a plain round rose. This contemporary lever door handle has a simple yet decorative industrial-inspired design, leaving a thoroughly modern and luxurious impression. Inspired by the incredibly successful WWII aircraft, the Spitfire. The Spitfire had a groundbreaking design and superior specifications including a quality Rolls-Royce engine.
